One day an adventurous koala was thinking about the ocean. He thought maybe I could dive deep in the ocean. So that is what he did.

He went to a shop called scuba gear for koalas and got a snorkel and goggles. You know what? He even bought a boat to get out to sea. then he went to the beach and got the boat in the ocean and set sail.

Once he got out to sea he got his snorkel and goggles on and dove in the ocean. Guess what he saw?

A ship wreck!!

He was so curious so he went to explore but there was a shark. The shark tried to bite the koalas tail off but he was too fast and kicked the shark in the face and it knocked the shark out! Then he went to explore. Once he got in the ship wreck he found pirate flags, pirate skeletons, and pirate hats. Most important of all he found?...

A treasure chest filled with diamonds and gold!!

The koala went back to the boat and went to a bank to get MONEY! Then he went to a store called Mansions for Koalas and paid people to build him a mansion with his money! It had five indoor spas, two indoor pools, five gaming rooms, one pool table, two Master bedrooms, a tennis court, a baseball field, a golf field, five movie theaters, a huge kitchen and dining room, and five kid bedrooms. He lived happily ever after.
