

PROM & GRADUATION SEASON: THE IDEAL TIME TO HAVE A CONVERSATION WITH YOUR TEEN!

When teens were asked to identify the major influences in their lives, they placed parents first, ahead of peers and activities!

Ask your teens about their plans for prom and graduation.

Remind your teen that they have the ability and the power to say no.

Talk about your expectations for keeping events drug and alcohol free.

Be ready to drive for any event if needed.

If they are uncomfortable with any situation they should call 911.
