2. Approve Minutes: Minutes approved.
3. SEL Check In & Celebrations: Jennifer reports she had first in person student of the year. Student spoke up in class and was participating. Tested 69 people yesterday. The Building will be open again tomorrow!!! (4:08 PM) Announcement went out to parents.
4. COVID Update: send a list of all students and staff that have consented. Includes middle school, avoid disruption as possible and they have to come with the teacher. Have to test around 50 people. Building was closed due to two cases of COVID. Consolidated doors for entry and dismissal due to consolidating classes and also to make it so they don't have to plow the middle L door. Also planning for middle school. Bus kids go to cafeteria. Natalie's daughter is student of the month.
5. Parent chat topics: Maria Torres- Parent Chats are a round table for parents to voice concerns about child's information. Open roundtable about a topic. Hear concerns and not necessarily solve problems. Timed for speaking. Looking for areas for approval. Topic: Chronic Absenteeism. Dec, 21st and 2nd in January (Spanish and Mandarin) What will the follow-up look like?
6. CEP Feedback: Timeline was extended to January 15, and feedback by January 22nd. We will get info from DocuSign to sign off on CEP goals.
7. Title One Meeting Feedback: Meeting went well, but not sure if we had any parents signed-up. We will create a flyer for the survey link. Will post on PA Facebook.
8. 5 Day In-Person Learning Model (Middle School):
 - a. Haven't heard anything from the city.
 - b. ASD office has been in contact. Consolidating and moving homerooms.
 - c. Three bigger changes: two horizon classes will have to move to bigger classrooms.
 - d. There is a cohort of 14 kids that they are going to set up a classroom in the library.
 - e. Schedules will change. Making sure every class has a teacher. 2 more teachers got remote accommodations.
 - f. Re-framing it as prep for high school and how things change each semester.
 - g. Only one 6th grader and a couple of younger kids have opted out to remote.
9. Parent Association Update: Halloween video no update.
