One beautiful morning in New York City, something amazing happened in Town Square. Jillett was in his treehouse at his grandma's house. He was playing in the house and happened to look out the window. He then noticed a dot in the sky that didn't seem normal. As he continued to watch it, the dot became even bigger. He never thought he would see what he was about to see.

Jillett discovered a big portal falling to the ground at a cheetah's top speed. The portal hit with such force, that an explosion had happened.

He was so curious he rode his bike to the town square and saw that town square had exploded!!! He couldn't believe what he saw, so Jillett went back to his grandma's house. As soon as he arrived back at his grandma's, he called his friends, Jill, Jon and Jam.

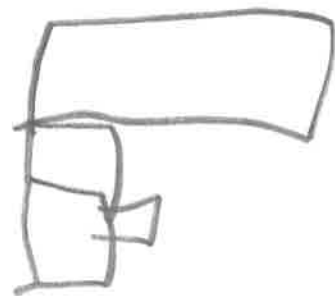

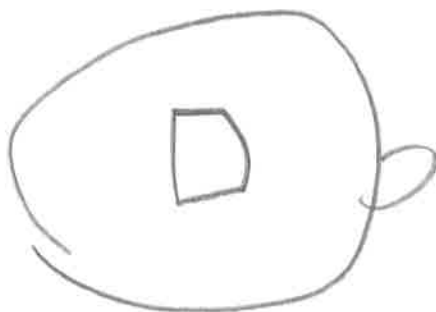

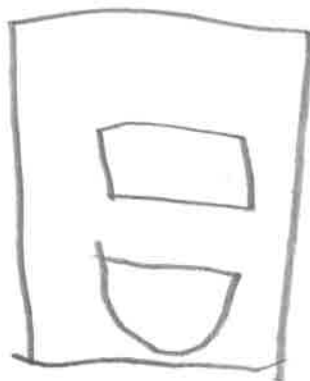

He told them all to meet him at the tree house.

Jillett went back outside and into the treehouse where him and his dog, Bob, waited patiently for his friends to arrive. Soon they all started to arrive. He began to tell them the crazy story of what had happened.

They were all amazed with what had happened, so they turned on the t.v. to see if there was any news about the portal hitting the ground. They were also looking for information about the big explosion and what had happened with it.

They were right, there was news all over the tv. "Look at that! It is a Zombie Apocalypse!" said Jam.

"Yes, it is." said Jill.

"We have to prepare for the worst." added Jon.

They all began to think of what needed to be done. They knew with all of the Zombies around that they would need protection. They were starting to think of ways that they could do it.

"Well...we have acid and squirt guns." said Jillett. "We could use them to fight off the Zombies."

"Great idea, Jillett", said Jam.

"Ok, let's do this!" we all said at the same time.

Shield - trash can lid, sock, and duct tape Put sock on the trash can lid and tape on them it - Buck and King CUT holes in the bucket
so you can see and breathe

The kids gathered all of their supplies. It was time to be ready for the worst thing possible. They knew that they also needed some other form of protection, so they set off to build a shield. They gathered trash can lids, a sock for the handle, and Duct Tape. They also wanted to make a helmet, so they grabbed some buckets. They used a knife to cut holes in the bucket so that they could see and breathe. They were finally ready for some Zombie action.

They got all of their gear on and had their squirt guns ready. When we stepped outside a zombie saw us. It started to attack us with a flamethrower. Luckily, we were all prepared and we started to shoot at him.

"Got him!" Jillett said excitedly. When they looked at the Zombie something was really strange. The Zombie was bleeding. He was bleeding out mustard.

"What the heck!", said Jillett.

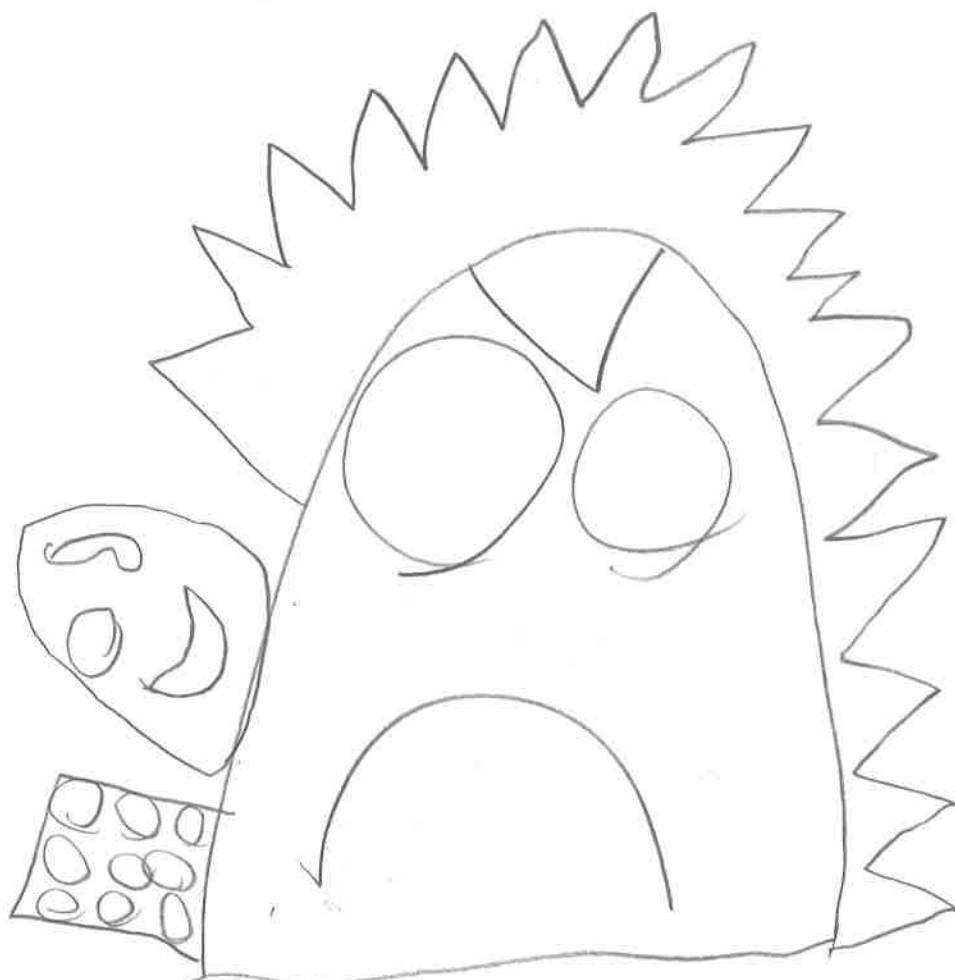

"Yummy!" said Jam.

"Where's the hotdogs?", said Jill. All of them began to crack up laughing.

"Oh, Jill! You're so crazy!" said Jon.

Suddenly we heard a loud BOOM... BOOM... BANG! They began to tremble in fear as they didn't know what was happening.

"Oh no! That's King Mustard's laugh." said Jillett scaredly.

"We are almost to King Mustard's evil lab," said Jam. "Let's keep going so that we can attack him and hopefully end this apocalypse."

So we started to run towards the lab. On our way, we met up with a few more Zombies. Luckily they didn't see us, so we just ran past them. When we finally got there, we were exhausted!

"We...are...here" said Jillett out of breath.

BOOM BOOM BOOM
BOOM BOOM

"Wow! So this is what King Mustard's lab looks like," said Jam.
They suddenly heard another...BOOM... BOOM... BANG! "That's King Mustard's laugh again", said Jillett.

When they got inside the evil lab, we saw King Mustard starting to attack the hotdog man. Suddenly out of the corner of his eye, he spotted all of the kids.

"Ha ha ha, you pesky kids. You can never defeat me." Said King Mustard.

"Gun's up everyone" said Jillett.

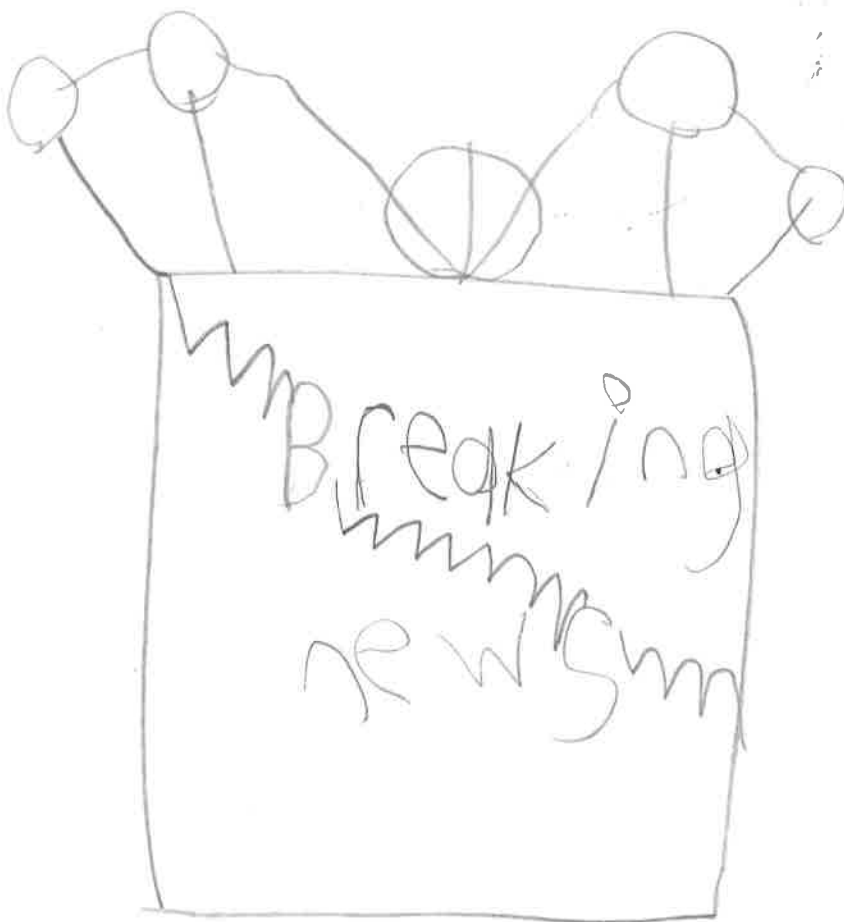

They started to spray King Mustard, but he wasn't going down.

"Oh no! We are out of acid." said Jillett. "What are we going to do?"

"Ha, I knew it you kids can't beat me" said King Mustard.

ZING...ZANG...ZOP! We couldn't believe that we were hearing another strange noise.

"Who or what is that?" said Jill confused.

"Umm... I think that has got to be King Ketchup! He is here to help us get King Mustard. We will make a great team" said Jillett

"Alright kids, I will need for you to run back to your house so I can deal with King Mustard." said King Ketchup.

All of the kids looked at King Ketchup, and agreed that they would listen to what he said. They ran back to their houses and turned back on the TV and waited to see if there was any news on what happened with King Mustard.

Soon there was a Breaking News update on the TV. The news reporter came on and said that the world is back to normal, with thanks to Jillett, Jon, Jill, and Jam. They got King Ketchup to help out and destroy King Mustard.
