

Building Community

PBIS expectations can also be taught throughout

Lesson Topic	Lesson Objective	Related Literature	Common Language	Practice / Activities
1. Meet-Up Expectations	Create expectations for meet-ups, what it sounds like, looks like, transitions, etc. Kindness, Effort, Respect, Responsibility	Be Kind by Pat Zietslow Miller	Respect, Effort, Kindness, Responsibility SLANT	Create an anchor chart to post in classroom All About Me Poster
2. Getting to Know Each Other!	Students will learn about each other, notice similarities and differences, be able to relate to one another Kindness, Respect	If I Built a School by Jack Van Dusen The Day You Begin by Jacqueline Woodson	Sharing, working cooperatively, compare and contrast, collaborate	Have students create their own school Get to Know You Bingo Gratitude Game Show & Tell
3. What is a Community?	Students will create a community by helping create expectations for the classroom, share ways to handle problems, and discuss ways to work as a community.	The Rabbit Listened by Cori Doerrfield The Giving Tree by Shel Silverstein How Full is Your	Community, problem-solve, respect	Create a welcome handshake as a class Bucket Fillers Cup Stacking Game

	Effort, Kindness, Respect	Bucket by
4. We live in a Diverse World!	Students will learn differences about each other and learn the uniqueness we all have. Kindness, Respect	I Am Enough by Grace Byers Just Ask by Sonia Sotomayor Elmer by David McKee	Similarities, differences, compare and contrast, unique	Ways to grow and ways I shine Place different things students have done around the room (ex. Swimming, theme park, park, for a walk, out of state, etc.) and have students place sticky notes or sign their names to the things they have done Writing: Draw a 2D I and write words that explain what students are an “expert” at- write things they feel the most confident in (Ex. coloring, swimming, cooking, dancing, riding a horse, etc.) Activity

