The Daddy Daughter Dance

Grade 1
Fiction X
Poetry
Nonfiction

One morning Mia asks her Daddy if They can enter a Christmas dance competition. Her Daddy said, "yes!" Mia said we need to get our dance costumes on.

Then they practice their dance with Ms. Gloria at the studio. Now they were ready for the performance.

Mia and Daddy get on stage to perform their dance moves. Daddy did not smile and Mia messed up her dance moves.

Mia whispers to Daddy to put on his best smile Daddy tells Mia to do her best moves. They worked together and tried their best.

Mia was sad. She thought they weren't going to win the Christmas Dance Competition.

The judges liked that Mia and her Daddy helped each other. The dancers all sat on stage when The judges announced that they won a 1st place trophy and candy cane shoes. Mia felt really happy → and hugged her dad.