

Name: _____

Packet 2019

- ☐ Read and Log Reading Nightly
- ☐ 35 pages per night in Independent reading book
- ☐ Complete 6 stop and jots from Stop and Jot Menu
- ☐ Make sure stop and jot have inference, evidence and elaboration
- ☐ Complete 1 Reading Response

Packets will be entered into Jupiter for completion and accuracy of completing each task. I have provided models for stop and jots, and also reading responses.

Name: _____

Any questions you would ask a character or the author and why? 	Obstacles your face and advice you would give them on how to overcome it. 	Strengths and weakness of a character and how do you know?
What is your character's biggest desire and how do you know? 		Choose 2-3 words to describe the character and use evidence from the book to describe your thinking?
A moment where the character has an emotional reaction and what causes it? 	Create an inference on your reading and support it with text evidence. 	Make a prediction about what will happen next and why you think that?
Can you think about a character from another book you read that reminds you of a character in your current book? How are they similar? 	What is a life lesson the author is teaching us? 	Why do you think the character acts/reacts a certain way? What in the text makes you think this?

Name: _____

Stop and Jot Expectations:

☐ Inference

☐ Evidence

☐ Elaboration

805:

I would say a weakness of Mary Maloney is her lack of sanity. I say this because in the text it states "She carried the meat into the kitchen, put it into a pan, turned on the oven, and put the pan inside. Then she washed her hands, ran upstairs, sat down in front of the mirror, fixed her makeup, and tried to smile." Mary had just killed her husband and she reacts by cooking and then Smiling in front of her mirror, this shows me she is crazy because this is not normal for someone who just killed her husband.

Name: _____

Reading Response

Paragraph 1: Summary of what you have read for the week.

Paragraph 2: An Inference or Idea about your reading for the week. Supported with 2 pieces of evidence from the text.

- ☐ What is the character like? List a character trait for a character.
- ☐ What obstacles get in the way of your characters desires?
- ☐ What is the characters strength/weakness?
- ☐ What is a lesson the author can be trying to teach you through what your character is going through?

Analysis: What is your evidence proving?

I am currently reading a book called "Lamb to the Slaughter". This story is about a woman named Mary Maloney who kills her husband. He shared some kind of news that the author does not tell us which causes her to kill him by hitting him over the head with a lamb leg. She then covers up his murder by cooking the murder weapon, the lamb leg and feeding it to the cops she called when she pretended to discover her husband's body.

I think I would describe Mary Maloney as crazy. I say this because in the text it states "She carried the meat into the kitchen, put it into a pan, turned on the oven, and put the pan inside. Then she washed her hands, ran upstairs, sat down in front of the mirror, fixed her makeup, and tried to smile." Mary had just killed her husband and she reacts by cooking and then smiling in front of her mirror, this shows me she is crazy because this is not normal for someone who just killed her husband. Another part of the story it states, "It's probably right under our noses. What do you think, Jack?" And in the other room, Mary Maloney began to laugh." The police officers are eating the murder weapon and Mary laughs because of the comment the officer made. This proves my inference because it shows that Mary is crazy by showing her laughing at the fact that the police are eating the murder weapon.

Name: _____