POSTING

The District anticipates filling the following position for the 2020/21 school year:

Music - Chorus Teacher Mahopac High School

The Mahopac Central School District is seeking candidates for a full-time, probationary, high school chorus teacher for the 2020-2021 school year. Candidates should have excellent piano skills with the ability to accompany the chorus in daily classes and a thorough command of a varied set of choral repertoire is required (e.g., classical, pop, renaissance, show tunes). Candidates should also have basic proficiency on the guitar. Instructional responsibilities include a choral ensemble, small-group voice instruction, beginner piano, and guitar classes, as well as fundamentals of music theory class. Extra-curricular opportunities include select vocal groups and involvement with the high school musical.

The Mahopac Central School District has been recently named one of NAMM's Best Communities for Music Education and the district is proud to offer students a comprehensive K-12 Music Program. We are looking for the best and brightest to continue leading Mahopac Music into a new era. Candidates must be excellent musicians, possess good communication skills, be positive, enthusiastic, well organized, willing to work collaboratively as part of a team, and NYS certified in K-12 music.

In order to be considered for the position, applicants must apply online via OLAS (BOCES Online Application System) at www.olasjobs.org/lhv no later than Wednesday, June 10th, 2020.
