Chapter 1

Spot Gets Adopted

Once upon a time there was a dog that was captured and turned into the pound. He was a dog that was a little different than the others. He was in a cage that was double locked and with no windows or bars. He was in this special cage, because everyone was afraid of him. Well, everyone but one person.

She was a normal little girl named Vanessa. She was super excited because her parents finally agreed to letting her have a puppy. Vanessa was a caring girl. She wanted to get her dog from the pound to help dogs out that don't have a home.

As Vanessa was looking at the dogs in the pound, she came across a cage that was much different than the others. As she started to approach the cage, the dog keeper came towards her.

"This dog isn't available to adopt. He is too dangerous, and is said to be magical", the dog keeper said.

"What do you mean he is too dangerous, and magical?", Vanessa asked.

"He is dangerous because the last time someone tried to pet him, he was mad and tried to bite them. He also did some crazy things, which is why we know he is magical."

"Oh, okay," Vanessa said.

Vanessa didn't listen to that keeper. She knew that this was the dog that she wanted to be her furever dog. Vanessa adopted the dog and named him Spot. Vanessa was sure that they were going to have a great time together.

Chapter 2

Super Powers

Vanessa was still curious about what the dog keeper had told her about Spot being magical. She had never seen Spot do anything that was so called magical, but she did start to notice some different things happening with herself. Her and Spot had a special bond for sure. She noticed that she was able to do things that she had never done before.

She started to notice that she could understand what Spot was saying. One day, Vanessa was laying in her room petting Spot, and she asked him, "What was the keeper talking about when he said you were magical?"

"Well, I have some super powers, but I like to give them to my humans when I love and trust them," explained Spot.

"You mean that I have super powers right now?", asked Vanessa.

"Yes, you do, but you need to be careful and smart about using them.", explained Spot.

Vanessa was surprised. She didn't know that she had powers. She became a little bit worried though. She remembered that she had a doctor's appointment at 5:30 tonight, and it was 5:00. She became nervous because she knew that the doctor was going to notice that she had powers. She had to do something about going to the doctor because she wanted to keep it a secret.

She ran to her parents and told them to cancel the doctor's appointment. Her parent's looked confused. Vanessa never cancelled a doctor's appointment.

Vanessa's parents asked, "Why do you want to cancel your appointment? You love going to the doctor's."

Vanessa's parents didn't understand.

Vanessa replied, "I have homework."

Her parents were surprised, but listened to her and cancelled her appointment. She knew that was a close call.

Chapter 3

How to Use Powers

When Vanessa got to her room, Spot asked, "What happened?"

"I canceled the doctor's appointment," Vanessa said sadly. "I love the doctors."

"I'm sorry," Spot said.

"It isn't your fault. It is my fault because I am the one that brought you home and took care of you. I am the one that pets you all the time." Vanessa said.

"I have to train you on how to use your powers," Spot said.

Vanessa looked at Spot and with a big smile on her face she said, "Let's do this!"

"Good, I'm glad you are excited because your training will start now." said Spot.

Vanessa was not prepared and started to panic! Spot laughed and said, "You don't need to be prepared. I will teach you as we go." Vanessa was relieved.

The next day, Vanessa was learning how to control her laser eyes. She was O.K at first, but after a while she got better. When it was Monday, Vanessa finally finished with the laser eye lessons. She was ready to move up to learn how to fly.

At school, Vanessa was doing her work and then a boy named Carlos but all of the kids called him Los walked up to her. He started picking on her and laughed at her. Vanessa had had enough. She told him to meet him at the playground at the next recess.

So when it was recess, Vanessa went to the playground to meet Los. When she arrived she was so mad that when Los started laughing and picking on her, she accidentally used her laser eyes on him. The teachers couldn't believe their eyes. They called Vanessa's and Los's parents. The teachers told Vanessa's parents that she exploded Carlos with laser eyes.

When the teachers told Carlos's parents the sad news his parents fell in tears. Carlos's parents asked, "How did he explode?"

The teachers said, "Unfortunately, we have found out that one of our students has a power that she can use. Carlos had exploded from laser eyes."

"Who laser eyed him? Carlos's parents asked.

The teacher said, "Vanessa laser eyed him. I'm so sorry to tell you this."

Chapter 4

The Villain

When Vanessa got home, her parents were waiting for her. They asked, "What do the teachers mean by laser eyes exploding Carlos?"

"Well, the first thing is that Carlos is a bully. The second thing is that everyone calls him Los. The third thing is that I have no idea what youre talking about? Maybe it was somebody else who laser eyed Carlos."

Vanessa's parents looked at her very confused. They really didn't say much, other than to go to her room.

When Vanessa got in her room, Spot was waiting for her.

"How was your day?" Spot said.

"Well, actually it wasn't that good. I accidentally laser eyed Carlos," Vanessa said disappointedly.

"Do you need another day or two of practice?" Spot asked.

"No thank you," she replied as quick as a cheetah.

Vanessa turned on the news. The news girl came on with breaking news. "There is a new villain in town. People have reported that his name is Max. He has a sidekick named Cheese, which is real macaroni and cheese."

Spot looked at Vanessa. He said, "Oh good Vanessa, this is your first mission with me."

Vanessa looked at Spot a little disappointed. "I still need to learn how to fly. I only know how to do one thing, and that is not nearly enough for me to start fighting crime."

The room became very quiet. Spot looked at Vanessa and knew that this was the time to make her feel better about everything. He knew that she was upset about using her laser eyes at the wrong time.

"I can teach one more thing to you, but this power is one you have to be careful with. This one is the most important. This magical power is being able to control one's mind. You can control anything with it that is why you have to be careful using it." Spot told her.

Vanessa was so excited that Spot was going to trust her with this power. She knew that having his power would be so helpful. She promised that she would be so careful with it.

They set out to fight Max and Cheese. Vanessa knew that she would have to come up with a plan to get out of the house. She told her parents that she was going on a playdate with friends.

Vanessa learned her new magical power mind controlling real quickly. As Spot and Vanessa set off, she learned a bit more about her power.

When Vanessa and Spot finally got to the spot where Max and Cheese was, Spot looked at her and said, "Vanessa, don't fight yet. You need to have on your magical power suit."

Vanessa looked at Spot so confused. "I don't have one of those."

"You do, Vanessa. We just need to go back to the house so that I can give it to you. So Vanessa and Spot went back to the house.

Once they had arrived back home, Vanessa's parents looked at her and said, "Back so soon?"

Vanessa said, "No, I just forgot something really important, so I had to come back and get it."

Spot led Vanessa to her suit. The suit was purple and green with a big purple V in a big circle that is green. It was perfect! She loved her new suit and couldn't wait to get in it.

Vanessa and Spot headed back to where Max and Cheese were. She knew that there was nothing that was going to stop them from beating them up. She was right, after a few hits, Max and Cheese were defeated for now. Vanessa was surprised at how fast they beat Max and Cheese. She was so happy for her fast victory. She couldn't wait to see what her and Spot could do together.
