

School for Global Leaders Middle School 378

145 Stanton Street, 2nd Floor New York, NY 10002 [Tel] 212.260.5375 / [Fax] 212.432.5586

Student's Social Media Contract

<ul> <li>GUIDELINES Social Media, such as, Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, Instagram, LinkedIn, personal texting, and others, are powerful tools of communication that have significant impact your personal reputation as well as the reputation of The School For Global Leaders. Your parent/guardian and yourself must read and sign this contract acknowledging the student's responsibility to use Social Media responsibly as a member of The School For Global Leaders. Please use the following guidelines when posting on Social Media sites.</li> <li>Always be authentic. Be honest about your identity if you post personally, or as a student of Th School For Global Leaders. Never pretend to be someone else when you post personally or as student of The School For Global Leaders. Tracking tools enable supposedly anonymous posts be traced back to the authors. Always be honest about yourself and views without providing personal information that could be used against you.</li> <li>Think twice before posting. Privacy does not exist in the world of Social Media. Consider wha could happen if a post becomes widely known and how that may reflect on your reputation, the reputation of your family and friends, the reputation of another student, and the reputation of y school. Moreover, the information you place on line could jeopardize your future when applying to high school, college or even applying for a job as a student or a young adult.</li> <li>Be respectful and thoughtful. As a student of The School For Global Leaders, be mindful of th school's commitment to showing respect and dignity for all people and to the civil and thought discussion of opposing ideas. Treat others the way you would like them to treat you while post on Social Media sites.</li> <li>Know the rules. Follow a code of ethics. Become familiar with the terms of service and policie of the Social Media sites and networks in which you participate and the appropriate code of eth required for responsible online communications.</li> <li>Always</li></ul>	Name:	Grade:	Year: 2017-2018
<ul> <li>School For Global Leaders. Never pretend to be someone else when you post personally or as student of The School For Global Leaders. Tracking tools enable supposedly anonymous posts be traced back to the authors. Always be honest about yourself and views without providing personal information that could be used against you.</li> <li>Think twice before posting. Privacy does not exist in the world of Social Media. Consider wha could happen if a post becomes widely known and how that may reflect on your reputation, the reputation of your family and friends, the reputation of another student, and the reputation of y school. Moreover, the information you place on line could jeopardize your future when applying to high school, college or even applying for a job as a student or a young adult.</li> <li>Be respectful and thoughtful. As a student of The School For Global Leaders, be mindful of the school's commitment to showing respect and dignity for all people and to the civil and thought discussion of opposing ideas. Treat others the way you would like them to treat you while post on Social Media sites.</li> <li>Know the rules. Follow a code of ethics. Become familiar with the terms of service and policie of the Social Media sites and networks in which you participate and the appropriate code of ethe required for responsible online communications.</li> <li>Always remember that Cyber bullying is the willful and repeatedly bullying or harassment of another person or persons' through the medium of Social Media, which includes, electronic text, may be disciplined by The School For Global Leaders' administrators as needed or the matters may be handled as CYBERBULLYING which is ILLEGAL. Remember the Golden Rule. "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you" when you post on any Social Media site.</li> </ul>	personal texting, and others, are po your personal reputation as well as parent/guardian and yourself must responsibility to use Social Media	werful tools of communication the the reputation of The School For read and sign this contract acknown responsibly as a member of The S	at have significant impact on Global Leaders. Your wledging the student's chool For Global Leaders.
<ul> <li>could happen if a post becomes widely known and how that may reflect on your reputation, the reputation of your family and friends, the reputation of another student, and the reputation of y school. Moreover, the information you place on line could jeopardize your future when applying to high school, college or even applying for a job as a student or a young adult.</li> <li>Be respectful and thoughtful. As a student of The School For Global Leaders, be mindful of the school's commitment to showing respect and dignity for all people and to the civil and thought discussion of opposing ideas. Treat others the way you would like them to treat you while post on Social Media sites.</li> <li>Know the rules. Follow a code of ethics. Become familiar with the terms of service and policie of the Social Media sites and networks in which you participate and the appropriate code of eth required for responsible online communications.</li> <li>Always remember that Cyber bullying is the willful and repeatedly bullying or harassment of another person or persons' through the medium of Social Media, which includes, electronic text Students who engage in Cyber bullying on Social Media sites, including electronic text, may be disciplined by The School For Global Leaders' administrators as needed or the matters may be handled as CYBERBULLYING which is ILLEGAL. Remember the Golden Rule. "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you" when you post on any Social Media site.</li> </ul>	School For Global Leaders. Never student of The School For Global I be traced back to the authors. Always	pretend to be someone else when leaders. Tracking tools enable sur ys be honest about yourself and v	n you post personally or as a possedly anonymous posts to
<ul> <li>school's commitment to showing respect and dignity for all people and to the civil and thought discussion of opposing ideas. Treat others the way you would like them to treat you while post on Social Media sites.</li> <li>Know the rules. Follow a code of ethics. Become familiar with the terms of service and policie of the Social Media sites and networks in which you participate and the appropriate code of eth required for responsible online communications.</li> <li>Always remember that Cyber bullying is the willful and repeatedly bullying or harassment of another person or persons' through the medium of Social Media, which includes, electronic text Students who engage in Cyber bullying on Social Media sites, including electronic text, may be disciplined by The School For Global Leaders' administrators as needed or the matters may be handled as CYBERBULLYING which is ILLEGAL. Remember the Golden Rule. "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you" when you post on any Social Media site.</li> </ul>	could happen if a post becomes wid reputation of your family and friend school. Moreover, the information	lely known and how that may refl ds, the reputation of another stude you place on line could jeopardize	lect on your reputation, the ent, and the reputation of you e your future when applying of the Social Media sites and networks in which you participate and the appropriate code of eth required for responsible online communications.  • Always remember that Cyber bullying is the willful and repeatedly bullying or harassment of another person or persons' through the medium of Social Media, which includes, electronic text Students who engage in Cyber bullying on Social Media sites, including electronic text, may be disciplined by The School For Global Leaders ' administrators as needed or the matters may be handled as CYBERBULLYING which is ILLEGAL. Remember the Golden Rule. "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you" when you post on any Social Media site.  Tent Signature(s)	school's commitment to showing rediscussion of opposing ideas. Treat	espect and dignity for all people a	and to the civil and thoughtfu another person or persons' through the medium of Social Media, which includes, electronic text. Students who engage in Cyber bullying on Social Media sites, including electronic text, may be disciplined by The School For Global Leaders ' administrators as needed or the matters may be handled as CYBERBULLYING which is ILLEGAL. Remember the Golden Rule. "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you" when you post on any Social Media site.  Tent Signature(s)	of the Social Media sites and netwo	orks in which you participate and another person or persons' through Students who engage in Cyber bull disciplined by The School For Gloc handled as CYBERBULLYING w	the medium of Social Media, whying on Social Media sites, included bal Leaders' administrators as need in it is ILLEGAL. Remember the	ich includes, electronic text. ding electronic text, may be eded or the matters may be Golden Rule. "Do unto
ident Signature Date:	rent Signature(s)		Date:
	dent Signature		Date: