

Questions you can ask any admissions rep:

1. Financial Aid: Are all applicants considered for available scholarships automatically or is there a separate system?
2. How many years is housing guaranteed?
3. Most schools post the 6 year graduation rate, what's the 4 year rate?
4. How easy is it to cross register, ie art classes for a psych major?
5. When are internships available and how are they publicized? Do you need to create an account with career services?
6. Is tutoring available for students? a writing lab ?
7. How does "demonstrated interest" play into the application process? Is this an important variable and what factors go into making that determination?
8. Are some high school extra-curricular more valued than others? If so what would be something the school is looking for? How about community service?
9. How would you describe the schools culture?
10. When does a student have to declare a major?
11. Are some majors unavailable after freshman year? Art/ portfolio? Education?