

The Boy Who Knew Everything

Grade	3
Fiction	X
Poetry
Nonfiction

Once upon a time there was a boy who knew everything. His name was Fred.

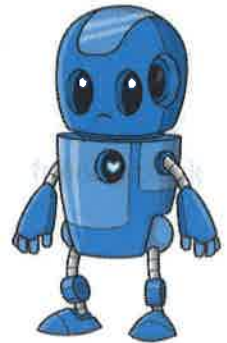

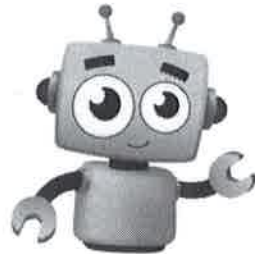

Fred knew so many things. If there was a question, he knew the answer, if there was a problem about to be solved, he was already coming up with the solution.

Some other things that he knew were, how to solve a math problem in two seconds flat, he could build a rocket ship out of scrap metal, he knew how to turn heavy matter into a black hole, and he knew how to build super awesome robots.

But what he didn't know was that tomorrow his whole life would be changed.

It was the end of the day and Fred thought he should get a midnight snack. It takes a lot of food to fuel his brain power, you know? So, he got his snack and went to bed.

When he woke up the next morning, he was no longer in his comfy bed, but found himself in outer space surrounded by a group of tiny green aliens. One of the aliens put him in hand cuffs and told him that he was their prisoner now and had taken some of his knowledge. Fred went crazy! He had never been without his knowledge before and began to slightly panic. Fred had never had to question what he was going to do next. Fred was scared that one of the aliens holding a tiny gun was going to blast him, which he would have if one special alien named Bob wouldn't have jumped in to save him.

Fred then knew he had at least one ally among the tiny aliens. Just then Fred remembered that he needed to get his knowledge back. That was now his goal and focus. Bob distracted the other aliens so Fred and him could sneak away.

Bob reminded him that they needed to come up with a plan first. As they were making the plan, Bob remembered that there were lasers in the cave where they were keeping Fred's knowledge.

Luckily, Bob knew how to disable the lasers because Fred wasn't much help without his brain power. Bob was about to crack the code when he heard some suspicious noises. The other aliens had found them! One of them yelled,

The aliens were set to declare war on Fred and all the other humans back on Earth. They started to send out their battle ships to attack!

Fortunately, Bob had a smoke bomb he had been hanging onto for a special occasion and thought it would be a great time to use it. Bob set off the smoke bomb and created enough of a distraction to get the hand cuffs off Fred and get Fred's knowledge back.

Boy was Fred happy to be able to think again. Now that Fred was super smart, they snuck into a battle ship and flew off into outer space hoping to make it back to Earth before the aliens realized what happened.

They made it to Earth safely and Fred took Bob to his house to meet his parents. Their names were Scarlett, the wife, and Josh, the husband.

Fred's parents were so happy to see him. They had been so worried when Fred didn't come down for breakfast like normal. They asked him where he had been. He said,

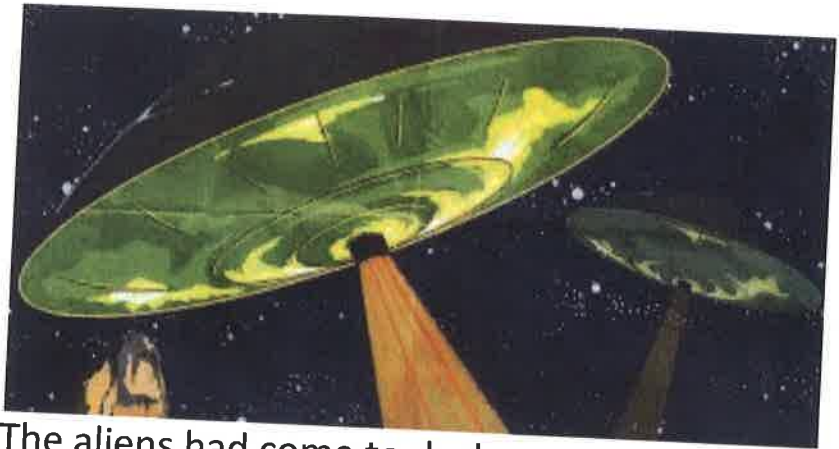

"I was in outer space!"

His parents' jaws dropped to the floor, they were shocked. Then Bob peeped out and Fred's parents really froze.

They asked, "Who is this?" Fred replied, "This is Bob, my alien friend I met in outer space." They both yelled, "ALIEN!" and ran to the kitchen to grab a knife to protect themselves. Fred stopped them and said, "No, he's a good alien. He saved my life." Then Fred's parents looked up and said, "Then what are all those alien ships doing here?"

The aliens had come to declare war on the humans and to get revenge. Luckily Fred had his knowledge back and could come up with a battle strategy to save Earth. He knew that the alien's weakness was loud noises. So, Fred set up a bunch of loud speakers and played the loudest song ever.

They fought a big war that created lots of vibrations on the land. These vibrations made the aliens lose their memory and they forgot why they came to Earth. This gave Fred the advantage. While the aliens were confused, Fred used his knowledge again to create a black hole to take the aliens back to outer space.

He told the aliens that the hole would take them to a new universe. The aliens agreed and left the Earth just as quick as they came.

This is the epic tale of how Fred and Bob saved not only the Earth, but the whole universe. Fred was happy to have his knowledge back, to be done fighting aliens, and to just be back to being a regular boy. Except we know Fred was not just a regular boy, he was the boy who knew everything!