November 2018 Edition

Welcome to P.S. 335 Kindergarten monthly newsletter. The newsletter is to inform you of what's happening in our classes for the month of November. Please use it as an opportunity to read with your child and take advantage of the free resources for families.

Math: Numbers to 10

Students will count and write numerals from 0 to 10, Pair and count set of objects, Compose/Decompose numbers 1-10 and use one-to-one correspondence

Reading: Emergent Story Books and Shared Texts

Read text with meaning and understanding
Retell in various ways to grow an understanding of characters, setting, and events in the text

Writing: Show and Tell: From Labels to Pattern Books

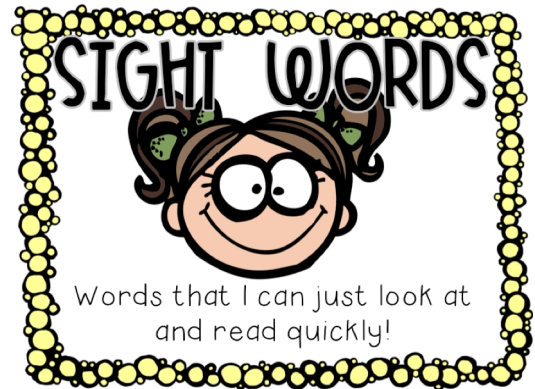

Students will create their own books, talk about their writing with excitement and write lots of sentences across pages in a pattern, using high-frequency words label pictures using one or more letter sound.

Social Studies: Self and Others

Students will understand and celebrate differences and similarities between people and cultures (language, traditions, religion, traditions, customs, etc.).

Science: Needs of Plants and Animals

The unit examines the problem of the declining monarch population on a smaller scale. Students assume the role of scientists helping to explain why there are no more caterpillars in a community garden

Sight Words To Learn:

I, a, is, to, me, my, see, the, in, on, like, so, we, it, and, up, at, he, do, you, an, can, am, on, go, so, look

Fun Sight Word Activities

Word Hunt: Look for sight words in books, magazines, the newspaper or anything you read. If using the newspapers/magazines your child can highlight or circle the words they find.

Concentration: Create two sets of word cards. Place the word cards face down. Have your child turn over two cards, trying to make a match. Continue until all of the words are matched.

Words You Can Eat: Write your words in whipped cream, peanut butter, carrots or anything you can eat.

Write the sight words using:

Playdough, Alphabet stamps, letters out of magazines, Magnetic letters, Salt/Rice on a tray, Shaving Cream, or in sand or dirt
