VS.2d Locating the three American Indian language groups.

| Iroquoian	Sioun	Algonquian
Spoken in Southwest Virginia	Spoken in the Piedmont region	Spoken in the Tidewater Region
Cherokee		Powhatan

Teaching Tips:
- Fold an 8 1/2" x 11" paper in half, hamburger fold. .
- On the front, and glue the map and the label found on the next page, cutting the Virginia map out on the solid line.
- Cut through the map on the dotted lines, creating 3 flaps.
- Lift the 3 portions of the "map flap" and glue on the descriptions listed above.
- Choose colors to color code the regions on the map to match a colored border on the inside flap.
- Students can add more details about each language group or draw pictures to aid memory. For details, refer to the Curriculum Framework, page 7.

VS.2d Locating the three American Indian language groups.

Glue this map and label to the front of the foldable. Glue the label at the top.

Three American Indian Languages of Virginia