10/9/19 - 3rd meeting
4th period
Attendance: SS & MH

WHY is this educational

- Fallon: Covers government/current events, pop culture uses, cues, time management, broadcast journalist, digestible and understandable politics, variety of professions at work in real time- sounds/light/audio/photography and video, appealing and appropriate for most age groups, uses humor to establish real facts, interviews and live band. Would help us become more understanding of not only politics, different art form- comedy,
- Eilish; Establishes coping skills, lyrics hit home, normalizing mental health and making people aware of these illnesses to help decrease stigma, clean lyrics but address some difficult topics, variety of careers in action- projections/light/sound/band, advocates for decreasing gender stereotypes such as the clothing she wears especially in an industry where dressing and acting a certain way is the expectation for females, big on independence and self-awareness, around the same age, advocates self-love, advocates not using drugs and alcohol to fix mental health or as a coping skill, suggests helping others as a way to feel better about yourself and make others feel good, cultural and life experience- helps with being aware of surroundings, different music-different crowd, skills on how to be safe in crowds
