NAME:

CLASS PERIOD:

Assignment: CHARACTER CUBISM-

Students learned about the Cubism art movement and the main two types of Cubism that are recognized in the time period. Students were introduced to the artists Pablo Picasso and Georges Braque and their contributions to the Cubism movement. Students focused on using value and multiple perspectives of subject matter to create their composition.

Students were graded on completion, color choice, effective use of analytical value, space, demonstration of combining two types of Cubism, craftsmanship, and evidence of understanding/following assignment expectations.
