Pearl River Speech & Language

Dear Parents & Guardians,

Happy Holidays! As we are enjoying this festive season, we want to share some seasonal speech and language activities to facilitate and maintain the progress we have made in therapy this year! We hope you find these activities festive and fun! We wish you all the best during this holiday season!

From,
The Pearl River Speech Department

Toy Catalog Companion Activities:

As you may see toy catalogs circulating the household or local shops, grab them and use them to enhance your child's speech & language skills!!

- ☐ Articulation: Search for words with your target sound (write or draw found items)
- ☐ Categories: Name a category and have students search for 3 items within that category (write or draw found items)
- ☐ Functions: Give a function and have the students search for matching items (write or draw found items)
- ☐ Attributes: Give an attribute and have students search for items with matching features (write or draw found items)
- ☐ Compare/Contrast: Use the Venn Diagram to compare/contrast toys
- ☐ Persuasion: Discuss persuasive arguments. Develop paragraphs or outlines for suggested arguments
- ☐ Perspective Taking: Discuss perspective taking. Look through the toy book and make wish lists for given characters

WINTER WORDS

Take a look outside, how would you describe the weather?

Use your words from this month to talk about how the weather looks and feels outside!

CHILLY	COLD	ICY	FROST
CHIMNEY	SNAP	FLURRIES	GUST

HOLIDAY AND WINTER BOOKS

Use these fun and festive books to work on vocabulary, comprehension and grammar! You can even target articulation by going on a sound hunt!
