Dear Parents/Guardians,

Happy New Year!

Your New Dawn II family sincerely wishes that you had a wonderful break and are ready to help your student to the finish line: final exams and credit accrual for the fall semester!

This is a very exciting time of year. Your students will get to see the progress they have made with New Dawn as compared to their former schools and see what their projected graduation date will be.

The marking period will end on January 16th, with the Career Choices final happening in class on January 17th. The remainder of the finals will follow the testing schedule during the week of January 21st through the 24th. Please look for an email and a printed copy of the schedule on our website and with your student on Monday January 6th.

IMPORTANT NOTE: No work can be made up after January 15th. This is the close of the fall semester and credit accrual will be calculated. All work must be in before January 15th to be considered.

Some reminders:

The new door policy has been in effect. Students are required to be in school at 9 am. However, we have established a 9:30 am grace period. If your student is in after 9:30 they will receive a warning. After the SECOND WARNING, students will be sent home. This is vital to their academic performance. Many students are missing their morning credits because they
