Mr. Corbia and Mrs. Capeci spoke briefly about Mr. Durney's retirement being on the agenda, but indicated that this would be talked about again at another meeting as he is still in district for several more months.

Public Comment

Jody Helmle, 30 Austin Place, thanked Mr. Durney for his dedication, will miss seeing him and appreciated his timely response. She talked about the website. She asked about the King Street School parking lot completion date. The PTA is involved in the delivery and distribution of school supplies for the children and other events at the start of the school year; and it is important to know if other plans need to be made regarding these functions.

Tizita Fekredengel, Smith Street, she talked about the construction and the teachers' parking lot at John F. Kennedy School.

George Ford, Quintard Drive, talked about his questions and how answers are given. He talked about the money in the budget and feels money should have been returned to the taxpayers. He talked about different ways he feels that money could be allocated; he spoke about information being requested and how information is given back.

Public Comment was then closed with no one else wishing to address the board.

Mr. Corbia indicated that the board would get back to people as best they could with answers, although it may not be as timely as people would like or the answers that people are looking to hear. Mrs. Onofrio feels that this is an area that needs the board needs to look at and improve. Mr. Wolff commented that in the past, Dr. Kliszus was given the opportunity first to answer questions.

Dr. Kliszus asked that an email be sent to Mr. Renda regarding the delivery of the supplies. He spoke about extra parking spaces being planned for the parking lot at John F. Kennedy. FOIL requests are the process for requesting information. Many of these requests involve researching information and take time. The top priority this summer is to get the classrooms ready for September.

Mr. Wolff and Dr. Kliszus talked about the budget and the reserve fund. Mrs. Clohessy and Mr. Russo gave further comments on the budget.
