About Southern Westchester BOCES

Southern Westchester BOCES is a values-based organization of education leaders that is committed foremost to serving the students and educators of our region. Everything we do ultimately affects and benefits students. Every role in our organization is therefore positioned to have the maximum, tangible impact on education. Working here, you'll find opportunities to make a true difference in the lives of children, families and our communities every day. Established to provide high quality, cooperative services that are cost-efficient by design, we are known widely for our special education and career and technical programs. We also bring to bear expertise in a broad range of areas, including educational technology, teacher professional development, support for English language learners, and workforce development training. We seek to recruit talented, experienced professionals who share our vision and our belief in public education.

About the Center for Special Services:

The Center for Special Services provides specialized programs designed to ensure school districts meet the current and future educational challenges of students with disabilities. School districts refer students to Southern Westchester BOCES programs through their CSE process. Programs are located in local schools, community settings and BOCES locations throughout Westchester. We also provide specialized services to students who attend school in their local districts. The Center is a division of Southern Westchester BOCES, a values-based organization of education leaders committed to serving the students and educators of our region. Working here provides our employees opportunities to make a true difference in the lives of children, families and communities. BOCES provides high quality, cost-efficient cooperative services supporting a wide range of educational functions. We seek to recruit talented, experienced professionals who share our vision and belief in public education.
