Re: EHS Scheduling Committee – Status Report

As you know, in December 2013, a faculty committee at Edgemont Junior Senior High School began examining how time is used during the school day. At the Board of Education meeting on December 8, 2015, members of the EHS Scheduling Committee will present a status report of our work. The report will include a review of the following components:

- Five central tenets motivating the discussion
- Types of schedules considered
- Faculty surveys and constraints
- Inclusion of parents and students in the process
- Parent and student surveys
- Timeline and negotiations
- Summary
