

Counseling Support Services for Students

Counselors at your child's school will continue to provide services for students, including delivery of curriculum. High School counselors will continue working with students in the college application process and completing career development. Elementary and middle school counselors will continue to provide support and will deliver curriculum to students. The school psychologists, the district's social worker and student assistance counselors will all be available to provide services for students and families. Contact them by phone or email if you or your student need assistance.
