COMMENTS

We started our month off with the gift of a “Compassionate and Safe Schools” Assembly sponsored by “The Soul Shoppe”. This program was a generous gift from one of our parents. Our students participated in several hands-on workshops in their grade-level groupings. The students learned valuable lessons about how to support one another to foster an emotionally safe school. These lessons correlate nicely with this month’s Character Education trait of Tolerance and our students are enjoying their studies of different cultures around the world, learning how they are similar and how they are different from ours.

We were recently interviewed by the Mountain Democrat and will be featured in their special edition entitled “Secrets of Success.” We are excited to share more about our unique Montessori program and how we serve our students and their families. We were pleasantly surprised to find out that the newspaper photographer who showed up to photograph the event was a parent of three graduates of our program. It was nice catching up with her!

We are preparing to welcome our three-week intercession and want to express our gratitude for the students and parents in our program. Pictured at right is a copy of the CMP Shingle Springs student artwork that will be featured in this year’s CMP Holiday Card. It expresses our feelings at this time of year! Congratulations go out to Olivia, a 1st grader in our program, for having her art selected to be included on this year’s card. ☺
