November

- November 7th was CMP-EG's campus closure day to allow staff the opportunity to observe at other CMP schools. Teachers returned to campus excited by what they saw, and eager to implement some new strategies in their own classrooms.
- We had our Walk-a-Jog-a-Thon fundraiser on Friday, November 9th. Months of planning go into this annual event and students were eager to include the "jog" portion into the fundraiser thanks to the ING grant CMP-EG received earlier this semester.

- Many of the classrooms are preparing for their annual Harvest Luncheons on Friday, November 16th. It is always fun to take a few moments and spend time with students and families while enjoying a meal.
- We had our Middle School Information Night on Wednesday, November 28th and on the 29th, the CMP-EG campus held its first Spelling Bee. One student from the campus is advancing to the local written competition to be held on January 12th in Sacramento.

December

- The first week in December has been very busy! The middle school students participated were away from campus to participate in their various business internship opportunities, while the sixth grade students were away at their annual Sly Park fieldtrip. The week will be finished off with a Winter Performance by the lower elementary students on Friday, December 7, 2012.
- And not to be forgotten, the upper elementary classes will be having their annual Wax Museum on Thursday, December 13th.
