CMP Shingle Springs' First Middle School Murder Mystery Dinner & Show Gets a Standing Ovation!

The Middle School writing, directing, and acting team received RAVE reviews at last Friday's first-ever Middle School Murder Mystery Dinner & Show. The evening started with Mr. Kevin's incredible team of actors infiltrating the dinner tables in full character, carrying on with the audience/guests. It was quite a pleasant surprise to find out that the show wouldn't be taking place on a stage, but right in front of us, at our dinner tablesand we were part of the show! The evening started with beverages being served to all, resulting in the almost immediate "death" of one of the actors. Throughout the evening, the show was interspersed with dinner, intrigue, dessert, more intrigue, and the murderer and his accomplice finally being revealed!

Kudos to the writing team of Mr. Kevin Meinz and student, Dane Sheridan, as well as the actors for their stellar performances, and the cast of teachers and parents who should win Oscars for their supporting roles. We have many requests to make the Murder Mystery Show an annual Middle School Performance.
