COMMENTS

The students have been normalizing nicely. A few new students have started late, but have been welcomed into the class and aided in settling in by their “experienced” classmates.

We did temporarily close one kindergarten class due to low enrollment numbers in the other four. This room had a long-term sub for the teacher who is out on maternity leave. The numbers exactly worked out to fill the other four classes to capacity. The children did very well acclimating to their new classrooms. Plans are to bring in some mid-year Kindergarteners to start in January when the teacher returns from FMLA leave.

We have had a number of pancake breakfasts which are wonderful community building events. We had our Walk-a-Thon fundraiser and were treated with a great view of the shuttle fly-over during the event. Everyone cheered, and the children raced across the field trying to get even closer to it. Our next big event is our Harvest Festival the evening of November 2nd.
