COMMENTS

We have had a busy and productive summer, making many improvements to our classroom and campus environments. The administrative team has been actively preparing for our new Kindergarten students, welcoming them into our summer Club M programs, setting up their internal records, and ensuring their classroom teachers are prepared to welcome them into our program on their first day of school as CMP students. ☺

We are pleased to be welcoming four new team members to our teaching community, as well as two long-term substitute teachers who will be covering for our teachers who have recently become new parents. We have already provided a lot of training to our new staff and we have paired them with experienced professionals to help with their transition.

Open Houses and Back-to-School Nights are just around the corner, and the new “CMP Guide” folders are already stuffed with Back-to-School information. The office team even has our first day of school’s Wednesday “CMP Hawks” folders filled and ready to go home. Our Dean of Students has scheduled three “7 Habits of Highly Effective Volunteer” training sessions and has arranged for a mobile LiveScan service to be present for these volunteer trainings.

The Shingle Springs team is well prepared and eager to welcome our students and their families back to school on Wednesday, August 14th!
