High School Admissions Overview and Timelines

How Offers Are Determined

Student factors and program factors determine if a program is a “reach,” “target,” or “likely-match” for your student.

Reach

Lower chance you'll get an offer

Target

Average chance you'll get an offer

Likely-Match

Higher chance you'll get an offer

STUDENT FACTORS

Choices on Application

The 12 programs listed on the application AND the order in which they are listed.

Student Information*

Student's academic record, audition, and/or address.

*(Only for some programs)

PROGRAM FACTORS

Admissions Priorities

The order in which applicants are considered.

Admissions Methods

How programs consider and match with applicants.

Seat Availability

The number of seats available for applicants.

2017 Admissions Process Results

- 93% received an offer
- 46% received an offer to their top choice
- 72% received an offer to one of their top three choices
- 96% of students who listed 12 programs received an offer.
- Relationship between number of choices on the application and percent offers:
 - Only 86% of students with 3 programs received an offer
 - Only 89% of students with 6 programs received an offer
 - Only 93% of students with 9 programs received an offer
- All students receive an offer by the end of Round 2

KEY DATES

Citywide High School Fair

SATURDAY September 16	SUNDAY September 17
---	---

Borough High School Fairs

SATURDAY October 14	SUNDAY October 15
---	---------------------------------------

English Language Learners (ELL)

- Students who are English Language Learners may apply to any high school in New York City.
- All high schools must provide ELL services for students.
- There are three different ELL service delivery models offered in NYC public high schools.
 - English as a New Language
 - Transitional Bilingual Education
 - Dual Language
- ELL students are eligible for supports and accommodations on admissions-related tests and auditions, including the SHSAT.
- There are programs designed to serve students who are learning English. These programs admit students according to home language, years in the country, or English proficiency.

Students with Disabilities (SWD)

- Students with Individualized Education Programs (IEPs) may apply to any high school program in New York City; all high schools must provide services for students.
- Students with approved accommodations are eligible to receive them on admissions-related tests and auditions, including the SHSAT.
- On each school page, you can find each program's SWD seat availability last year, and each school's accessibility category.
- For High School Admissions, seats at each high school program are divided into two groups:

General Education (GE) seats

- For students who receive general education instructional programming
- For students who receive special education instructional program for 20% or less of their academic program as indicated on their current IEP.

Students with Disabilities (SWD) seats

- For students who receive special education instructional program for more than 20% of their academic program as indicated on their current IEP.

 - General comments about the Diversity Plan
- There are 12 proposals to address policies and practices that pose challenges to school diversity
- 6 of these proposals fall under the Office of Student Enrollment

Examples of Diversity Plan Proposals Impacting High Schools

- Eliminate “limited unscreened” as a high school admissions method and replace with admissions methods that will promote greater diversity
- Streamline the formal mechanisms for families to learn about school options and apply
- Develop strategies to increase access to screened schools for all students, especially high-needs students
- Expand Diversity in Admissions Pilots
