COMMENTS

The first lottery for the Kindergarten Class of 2013-2014 was done early last month. Current families with siblings coming in to Kindergarten made up a large number of the 45 students drawn. All families who were selected have been contacted and a second lottery for short Wait Lists was conducted this week.

Our May Character Education Trait is Peace. The Sequoia class kicked off our Assembly and Spirit Day with a delightful series of skits focusing on how to foster Peace in our school and in our community. They also selected the Spirit Day theme of "Walk in Another Person's Shoes" to encourage students and staff to take another person's perspective to promote peace, acceptance and compassion.

The annual Spring Fundraiser is just around the corner. We'll be celebrating the beauty of California with a nostalgic beach theme. The event, California Dreamin', will be held on Saturday, May 18th from 3:00-7:00 pm. We have a DJ and a Band (comprised of our Executive Director, Gary Bowman, three members of our teaching staff and a couple of talented parent-musicians!), classroom Art activities that will be auctioned, games and activities galore, along with the most delicious beach themed food. We look forward to another fun-filled (and profitable!) fundraising event. ☺
