Campus Happenings:

With Spring Break over, we are now in the home stretch. CAASPP practice testing is completed and the schedule is set for the annual testing. We have the milestone field trips coming up for the upper elementary classes, and day trips for the younger students.

Parent/teacher conferences went well based on what teachers expressed to me.

Our tours for interested parents have continued to be well attended. Our last scheduled tour is next week in time for the final lottery draw where openings will be filled for all grades and numbered wait lists determined. We currently have 14 7th grade students for our new middle school!
